1. [REDACTED] LIAISON Received a call from Barbara Daniel, in the office of Representative J. Kenneth Robinson (R., Va.), who had a constituent request for an Agency study on the South Korean economic situation. I told her that the title of the study was "Korea: The Economic Race Between the North and the South," gave her the number of the document, and told her it could be obtained through the DOCEX Project at the Library of Congress.

4. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called a staff member on the Subcommittee on Asian and Pacific Affairs, House International Relations Committee, to inform them that the Director had approved Chairman Lester L. Wolff's (D., N. Y.) request for James Lilley and [REDACTED] National Intelligence Officers, to take part in a panel discussion for Congressional staff members sponsored by Chairman Wolff's Subcommittee. I explained that the Director's formal reply will follow.
